Phumlani Beach outing

Dear Friends

The annual beach outing of Presbyterian Phumlani Educare Centre was a glorious celebration of freedom and play on Monday. After a cold and rainy Sunday the weather was a little ominous in the beginning, but quickly cleared to a magnificent day. The water was supposedly 13 degrees and I was hesitant to let them play in it, but also turned out to be much warmer.

As pictures speak much louder than words, I leave you free to enjoy the attachment!

Regards

Eva
